this guide will help the contractor's staff overcome some of the difficulties encountered on a typical international contract using fidic forms the majority of fidic based contracts use the red book conditions of contract for construction so this book concentrates on the use of those particular forms supplementary comments are included in appendix c for the yellow book plant design build recommended for use where the contractor has a design responsibility the contractor is represented on site by the contractor's representative who carries the overall responsibility for all the contractor's on site activities in order to provide guidance to the contractor's representative and his staff this book is divided into five sections a summarized general review of the red book from the contractor's perspective a review of the activities and duties of the contractor's representative in the same clause sequencing as they appear in the red book a summary of these activities and duties but arranged in order of their likely time sequence on site this has the added intention of providing the contractor's representative with a means of ensuring that documents are not only properly provided to the employer and engineer but most importantly that they are provided within the time limits specified in the contract a selection of model letters is provided which make reference to the various clauses of the contract requiring the contractor to make submissions to the employer or engineer various appendices the guide is not intended to be a review of the legal aspects of fidic based contracts legal advice should be obtained as and when necessary particularly if the contractor has little or no knowledge of the local law armed on site with a copy of the contractor and the fidic contract the contractor s representative will be more able to avoid contractual problems rather than spend considerable time and energy resolving those problems once they have arisen excerpt from hodgson s estimator and contractor s guide for pricing builder s work describing reliable methods of pricing builder s quantities for competitive work showing in brief and concise form the methods generally employed by the most successful contractors giving full details for estimating cost by cost per cubic foot of simil it is the fate of books on estimating for builders that they soon become somewhat unreliable no matter how exact they may have been when first published this is due to various reasons the continual fluctuations in the prices of labor changes and introduction of new materials new methods of construction and style of building since this book was first published the changes made in the cost of labor and in the selling price of material have been wonderful and it may be said that buildings today are fully twenty eight per cent more costly than they were when this book was first published recently prices have risen so high and at such a rate that it has been found difficult to keep in touch with them for three or four years past contractors have either made or lost a lot of money for they either have run up big prices or in sticking to conservative figures have suffered losses to a considerable amount while the old figures as published before the present revision had ceased to be correct they had and will continue to have the quality of being guides on which correct or nearly correct prices may be based as nearly as i can average up the present costs they are about 28 per cent greater than the figures given in the former edition in the present corrected edition all the figures have been overhauled and changed when necessary to suit the current prices about the publisher forgotten books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books find more at forgottenbooks.com this book is a reproduction of an important historical work forgotten books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy in rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or
