the year 1996 in italian politics was a year rich in novelty after the stalled transition of 1995 the political atmosphere had begun to change most obvious was the end of dini's unelected government of technocrats supported by a heterogeneous group in parliament and its replacement with romano prodi's government a coalition of the parties that had won the general election on april 21 1996 but an even more important change and one more likely to be remembered was a new climate of dialogue amongst the main political forces that emerged from this period of transition between two republics in 1996 despite the general elections cooperation again became part of the political game
