this book brings together essays which in diverse ways not only revise existing views on thirties writing but also provide ways of accounting for its critical neglect the essays examine from a variety of theoretical and critical perspectives a body of work that reflects the true diversity of the literary and cultural contexts of the thirties and includes studies on the work of Louis MacNeice Frank Sheed Christopher Dawson Alick West Christopher Caudwell Stevie Smith Storm Jameson Phyllis Bottome Ivy Compton Burnett Graham Greene Eric Ambler George Orwell Christina Stead Randall Swingler and Ralph Fox

Much of the world's forested land is dominated by mixed species stands understanding the complex structure and dynamics of these mixtures is a necessary step in the process of formulating appropriate silvicultural systems for their management David M. Smith professor emeritus of silviculture at Yale University has devoted much of his career to the study of the structure development and silvicultural treatment of these kinds of stands this volume is presented by professor Smith's colleagues to honor the contributions he has made to the field it contains both reviews of past work and results of current studies of mixed stands topics range from analysis of forest dynamics in unmanaged stands to studies of silvicultural systems applied to mixtures with examples drawn from boreal temperate and tropical regions much of the work stresses the importance of understanding the characteristic growth patterns of individual species within mixed stands and how species interactions shape developmental patterns essays on contemporary Irish theatre

Christopher Caudwell was only twenty nine when he was killed in action in February 1937 at the beginning of the Spanish Civil War largely unknown at the time of his death his reputation has been established subsequently as one of the most original English cultural critics of the twentieth century

How did social cultural and political events in Britain during the 1990s shape contemporary British fiction from the fall of the Berlin Wall to the turn of the millennium the 1990s witnessed a realignment of global politics against the changing international scene this volume uses events abroad and in Britain to examine and explain the changes taking place in british fiction including the celebration of national identities fuelled by the move toward political devolution in northern ireland scotland and wales the literary optimism in urban ethnic fictions written by a new generation of authors born and raised in britain the popularity of neo victorian fiction critical surveys are balanced by in depth readings of work by the authors who defined the decade including a s byatt hanif kureishi will self caryl phillips and irvine welsh an approach that illustrates exactly how their key themes and concerns fit within the social and political circumstances of the decade the sage handbook of china and the environment is a comprehensive resource for understanding china s ecological transformation
