a timely riveting book that presents for the first time an alternative history of 1930s Britain revealing how prominent fascist sympathizers nearly succeeded in overturning British democracy using the past as a road map to navigate the complexities of today's turn toward authoritarianism. Hitler's Girl is a groundbreaking history that reveals how in the 1930s authoritarianism nearly took hold in Great Britain as it did in Italy and Germany drawing on recently declassified intelligence files. Lauren Young details the pervasiveness of Nazi sympathies among the British aristocracy as significant factions of the upper class methodically pursued an actively pro-German agenda. She reveals how these aristocrats formed a murky fifth column to Nazi Germany which depended on the complacency and complicity of the English to topple its proud and long-standing democratic tradition and very nearly succeeded as she highlights the parallels to our similarly treacherous time. Young exposes the involvement of secret organizations like the Right Club which counted the Duke of Wellington among its influential members, the Cliveden Set which ran a shadow foreign policy in support of Hitler, and the shocking four-year affair between socialite Unity Mitford and Adolf Hitler. Eye-opening and instructive, Hitler's Girl re-evaluates 1930s England to help us understand our own vulnerabilities and poses urgent questions we must face to protect our freedom: at what point does complacency become complicity posing real risk to the democratic norms that we take for granted? Will democracy again succeed and will it require a similarly cataclysmic event like World War II to ensure its survival? Will we in our own defining moment stand up for democratic values or will we succumb to political extremism?

in the space of just five years twice have taken the K-pop world by storm prize-winning journalist and the co-author of Smash New York Times bestseller I Am Malala, Christina Lamb now tells the inspiring true story of another remarkable young hero. Nujeen Mustafa, a teenager born with cerebral palsy whose harrowing journey from war-ravaged Syria to Germany in a wheelchair is a breathtaking tale of fortitude, grit, and hope that lends a face to the greatest humanitarian issue of our time: the Syrian refugee crisis. For millions around the globe, sixteen-year-old Nujeen Mustafa embodies the best of the human spirit confined to a wheelchair because of her cerebral palsy and denied formal schooling in Syria because of her illness. Nujeen taught herself English by watching American soap operas when her small town became the epicenter of the brutal fight between ISIS militants and US-backed Kurdish troops. In 2014, she and her family were forced to flee despite her physical limitations. Nujeen embarked on the arduous trek to safety and a new life: the grueling sixteen-month odyssey by foot, boat, and bus took her across Turkey and the Mediterranean to Greece, through Macedonia to Serbia and Hungary, and finally to Germany. Yet in spite of the tremendous physical hardship she endured, Nujeen's extraordinary optimism never wavered, refusing to give in to despair or see herself as a passive victim. She kept her head high as she told a BBC reporter, "you should fight to get what you want in this world." Nujeen's positivity and resolve infuses this unforgettable story of one young woman determined to make a better life for herself. Told by acclaimed British foreign correspondent Christina Lamb, Nujeen is a unique and powerful memoir that gives voice to the Syrian refugee crisis, helping us to understand that the world must change and offering the inspiration to make that change reality.

On 8 November when the clock strikes 12, your money will be no good somewhere on the India-Nepal border, a car full of passengers swerves off a highway and plunges into a valley. Its trunk full of cash, in the UK a Bollywood starlet wins Big Survivor, the most popular reality TV show in the country. In Panama, Central America, a whistle-blower at a law firm brings down billionaires across the globe, and in India, a new RBI governor is appointed. Aditya Kesavan is dynamic, charismatic, and ambitious, and he's been handed the reins of the RBI on a platter: his only job to make sure he doesn't rock the boat. But unknown to him, the wheels have begun to turn as the country heads towards the biggest financial event in modern Indian history, and Governor Kesavan is about to carry out the most brazen act of his life and perhaps his most foolish: will he be able to pull himself out of the mess he has got into, or will he have to surrender to the manipulative forces behind the scenes running desperately out of time? The governor must set things right.
