silence has many causes shame embarrassment ignorance a desire to protect the silence that has surrounded the atrocities committed against the jewish population of eastern europe and the soviet union during world war ii is particularly remarkable given the scholarly and popular interest in the war it too has many causes of which antisemitism the most striking is only one when on july 10 1941 in the wake of the german invasion of the soviet union local residents enflamed by nazi propaganda murdered the entire jewish population of jedwabne poland the ferocity of the attack horrified their fellow poles the denial of polish involvement in the massacre lasted for decades since its founding the journal kritika explorations in russian and eurasian history has led the way in exploring the east european and soviet experience of the holocaust this volume combines revised articles from the journal and previously unpublished pieces to highlight the complex interactions of prejudice power and publicity it offers a probing examination of the complicity of local populations in the mass murder of jews perpetrated in areas such as poland ukraine bessarabia and northern bukovina and analyzes soviet responses to the holocaust based on soviet commission reports news media and other archives the contributors examine the factors that led certain local residents to participate in the extermination of their jewish neighbors the interaction of nazi occupation regimes with various sectors of the local population the ambiguities of soviet press coverage which at times reported and at times suppressed information about persecution specifically directed at the jews the extraordinary soviet efforts to document and prosecute nazi crimes and the way in which the soviet state's agenda informed that effort and the lingering effects of silence about the true impact of the holocaust on public memory and state responses bachelor thesis from the year 2016 in the subject politics region africa grade 70 0 obafemi awolowo university course international relations language english abstract this study unravels the impact of boko haram insurgency on nigeria's relations with its neighbours this study analyses the nature and character of nigeria's neighbours and discovers that it is most time responsible for a low profile in nigeria's foreign policy gesture towards them this phenomenon is not unconnected to their perception of nigeria as a hegemonic power in its neighbourhood given nigeria demographic economic and military preponderance over them this perception of nigeria by its neighbours has over the years contributed to their frosty relations notably the hostile gestures of chad and cameroon towards nigeria the security concern that the internal crisis in chad in the 1970s generated for nigeria coupled with the presence of french forces in ndjamena at the eve of the nigerian civil war the study draws the attention to how boko haram insurgency further influences nigeria's relations with its neighbours the outreach of boko haram insurgency beyond the boundary of nigeria to include that of nigeria's neighbours has worsened the existing frosty relations among them this is true if one considers the fact that the activities of the boko haram have gone beyond the north eastern part of nigeria with its violent attacks on the nigerien soil compounding the already existing economic crisis in niger republic kidnapping of prominent citizens of cameroon and foreign nationals for ransom motive its use of chad as a safe haven and notably its thwarting of nigeria's influence in its neighbourhood boko haram insurgency has forced nigeria to concentrate more on its domestic issue the study therefore concludes by recommending to the government to adopt policies that are expansive and inclusive to address the crisis among which is the revamping of the socioeconomic condition and that attention should be given to border management and administration
