in the existing reports on national competitiveness and rankings such as imd world competitiveness yearbook and wef global competitiveness report there are sizable discrepancies in the ranking order for the same countries as a result the reader is often confused because such an outcome creates difficulties for government officials when translating these findings into real world policies these discrepancies are actually due to the differences in logic and analytical models used by imd and wef therefore in recognizing the problems and limitations of these models this book presents the ips model as a new approach as an extension of michael porter s diamond model it demonstrates a robust set of methodologies as well as offers a number of key policy implications for countries around the world that wish to enhance their national competitiveness the analytical tools used in this book can be further utilized for other units of analysis such as industries and firms as this book provides a series of sophisticated methodologies and specific guidelines for enhancing national competitiveness both academics and practitioners can derive useful implications from this research alongside the theoretical frameworks and methodologies for national competitiveness presented in this book the special theme and focus of this third volume is the fourth industrial revolution and the emerging technologies that are relevant to corporate and national competitiveness the discussion on the digitalization of business began as early as the 1990s but emerging technologies such as big data artificial intelligence and cloud computing have only been a recent trend furthermore the covid 19 pandemic has accelerated the adoption of emerging technologies by both firms and countries yet despite the growing importance of emerging technologies firms and governments seem to be lagging in effectively integrating them into their operations to address these challenges this book explains how emerging technologies have affected firms industries and countries it also welcomes discussion on how firms and countries are responding to the changing environment to enhance their competitiveness through these new technologies step up get tough and commit to your decision to lead the leadership contract provides the manual that leaders around the world need with only seven percent of employees feeling confident in senior leadership the problem is evident disappointing and often disgraceful leaders employees deserve better than that organizations need better than that and this book provides a robust framework for stepping up and making the decision to lead this new third edition has been updated featuring a new foreword by adecco ceo alain dehaze new findings from the global leadership accountability study and more insights to help you chart your own path to build strong leadership accountability at a personal and organizational level great leadership doesn t happen by accident it s more than just being in charge it s a decision an obligation and potentially your legacy mediocre is no longer good enough in today s business climate organizations need stellar leadership if you re not exceptional step up or step aside this book helps you toughen up and put your commitment to great leadership in writing for yourself as much as everyone else learn how a leadership contract is vital for truly accountable leadership discover the mindset and practices needed to be a deliberate and decisive leader communicate to inspire motivate and drive high performance become the leader your organization needs today and into the future leadership is not a birthright not an accident and not for everyone it is the only differentiator between an organization s success and failure and it has been entrusted to you can you step up to the challenge can you execute strategy while inspiring peak performance nurturing top talent managing complexity creating value conquering uncertainty and yes developing new leaders put your name on the line literally by drawing up a contract for leadership accountability the leadership contract provides a proven and practical framework used by companies and leaders around the world join them and take your leadership to next level
