this book promotes a philosophical revival of buber s dialogical thought by repositioning it as a philosophy of action departing from a long established consensus that narrowly viewed it as a post kantian epistemology based on careful analysis of his writings the book s main thrust is to reconstruct buber s argument that dialogue is the perfected form of action and a perfect action is necessarily dialogical this reconstruction renders buber s dialogical thought pertinent to contemporary analytic philosophy by situating it within central discussions in the field of philosophy of action
