a scintillating biographical study of the one of the greatest philosophers of the nineteenth century by one of the bestselling writers of the twentieth in this vivid biography Zweig eschews traditional academic discussion and focuses on Nietzsche's habits, passions and obsessions this work concentrating on the man rather than the work on the tragedy of his existence and his apartness from the world in which he moved in enforced isolation is a tour de force drawing the reader inexorably into Nietzsche's tragic trajectory illustrated with numerous photographs relating to Nietzsche and his European locations this superb translation by Will Stone is essential reading for anyone interested in Nietzsche Zweig first class biographies and philosophy this is the second volume in a trilogy in which Stefan Zweig builds a composite picture of the European mind through intellectual portraits selected from among its most representative and influential figures in Hölderlin, Kleist and Nietzsche. Zweig concentrates on three giants of German literature to portray the artist and thinker as a figure possessed by a powerful inner vision at odds with the materialism and scientific positivism of his time. In this case the nineteenth-century Zweig's subjects here are respectively a lyric poet, a dramatist and writer of novellas and a philosopher, each led an unstable life ending in madness and/or suicide and not until the twentieth century did each make their full impact. Whereas the nineteenth-century novel is socially capacious in terms of subject and audience the three figures treated here are prophets or forerunners of modernist ideas of alienation and exile. Hölderlin and Kleist consciously opposed the worldly harmoniousness of Goethe's classicism in favor of a visionary inwardness and dramatization of the subjective psyche. Nietzsche set himself as a destroyer and builder of philosophy and critic of the degradation of the German spirit through nationalism and militarism. Zweig's choice of subjects reflects a division in his own soul: the image of Goethe recurs here as the ultimate upholder of Zweig's own ideals, scientist and artist receptive to world culture, supremely rational and prudent; yet Zweig was aware that Hölderlin, Kleist and Nietzsche were more daring explorers of the dangerous and destructive aspects of man that needed to be seen and comprehended in the clarifying light of poetry and philosophy.

The Struggle with the Daemon is a brilliant analysis of the European psyche by the great novelist and biographer Stefan Zweig. In Struggle with the Daemon, Stefan Zweig studies three giants of German literature and thought: Friedrich Hölderlin, Heinrich von Kleist and Friedrich Nietzsche, powerful minds whose ideas were at odds with the scientific positivism of their age. Troubled spirits whose intoxicating passions drove them
