rediscovering confession is about recovering the experience of confession in danger now of becoming a lost art it identifies four elements present in psychotherapy and confession a state of heightened self awareness a growing realization that our predicament points in some meaningful direction beyond itself the necessity to make a relevant response to our situation and a potential for spiritual encounter that accompanies the process each chapter contains a section devoted to practice with exercises for individual contemplation and experimentation guidelines for forming a confessional partnership directions for conducting discussions in a study group and ways to organize a small confessional group
