have you ever been surprised or confused by what god did in your life or someone else s did you expect god to act one way and then he did something entirely different have you ever prayed and asked god to do one thing but he did something entirely different have you ever made great sacrifices for god and then he chose not to bless your efforts if so the reason may be that you are unfamiliar with the ways of god god s ways are vastly different from ours we will be constantly disappointed if we assume god will act the same way we would the problem with the church at times is that it tries to do god s work the world s way however with god how you do something is as important as what you do if you intend to be a growing fruitful disciple of jesus you must learn the ways of god bestselling author henry the liberating work of god calls the oppressed out of oppression and the oppressor out of oppressing the challenge in seeking a thorough liberation of oppressors is to help them understand their need for freedom and how to seek this freedom in their own contexts patrick oden provides a holistic biblical historical and theological analysis that diagnoses the underlying motivations and inclinations that lead to oppression part one addresses the context of oppression in which most participants in oppression do not actively seek to harm others but are caught up in systems that tend toward the diminishment of others part two examines the biblical and early christian response to oppression discovering a thread that avoids condemning participation in society generally while also cautioning the people of god about being co opted by society part three discusses how oppressors can withdraw from oppression through a constructive analysis of four contemporary theologians wolfhart pannenberg jürgen moltmann sarah coakley and jean vanier each of whom contributes to a widening vision of liberated and liberating life in which the once oppressed and former oppressor can find peace together in community
