excerpt from commercial law cases vol 1 of 2 it may be considered that the book appears too large for classes which have a limited time at their disposal this difficulty is more apparent than real as it is feasible for the instructor to skip cases at will and thereby choose for himself only the more important ones furthermore it is possible and very practicable to require no reading of the opinion of the court in many cases while the book has been in preparation the authors have been furnishing their classes with mimeographed statements of facts and holdings with no opinion appended this system has worked well and can be used to advantage even with the book in complete form by omitting the reading of the opinion the course may be much shortened by the elimination of this requirement and at the same time those students who desire to do additional work will have the material at hand about the publisher forgotten books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books find more at forgottenbooks.com this book is a reproduction of an important historical work forgotten books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy in rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition we do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works
