a dostoevskian psychological novel of ideas novel with cocaine explores the interaction between psychology philosophy and ideology in its frank portrayal of an adolescent s cocaine addiction the story relates the formative experiences of vadim at school and with women before he turns to drug abuse and the philosophical reflections to which it gives rise although ageyev makes little explicit reference to the revolution the novel's obsession with addictive forms of thinking finds resonance in the historical background in which our inborn feelings of humanity and justice provoke the cruelties and satanic transgressions committed in its name romance with cocaine mikhail ageev struggling with the confusion and insecurities that adolescence brings vadim seeks an outlet for his frustration following unfulfilling attempts at classroom rebellion filial disobedience and teenage sex he is drawn further and further into the world of illicit drugs as his desire to experiment with narcotics grows stronger so too do his feelings of worthlessness and isolation and his ultimate physical surrender to cocaine mirrors his nation's psychological capitulation to a world where morals no longer apply cocaine memoirs is a roller coaster ride through the insane world of anvil a long road trip seems to be never ending after every encounter with everyone he meets becomes another twist in the trip the trip to key west florida in search of his late father's ex wife margaret the mission to find margaret and give her a set of letter left behind by javier with instructions to find her the redemption is the ghost of anvil's father coming along for the ride and the ghost of his mother who anvil has never seen the ride is from pennsylvania to key west with stops in every state for another exciting twist the motivation is to find margaret and to locate his ex girlfriend and reunite with his son ending with anvil's inspirational reunion and the becoming of his new future also covers the attitudes of sigmund freud albrecht erlenmeyer ludwig lewin hans maier and timothy leary towards cocaine pete is a freelance journalist who thinks he's got a scoop on the big band of the moment and whose life revolves around the next party and increasingly the next line of coke set in the fickle soho music and media world this is a sharp often funny but by no means amoral novel about the music and drugs businesses

from the iconic author of crash and empire of the sun cocaine nights features a man who finds himself drawn into a network of drugs pornography and murder in a spanish resort the remarkable bestseller from one of the giants of modern british literature at once an engrossing mystery and an unnerving vision of a society coming to terms with a life of unlimited leisure when charles prentice arrives in spain to investigate his brother s involvement in the death of five people in a fire in the upmarket coastal resort of estrella de mar he gradually discovers that beneath the civilised cultured surface of this exclusive enclave for britain s retired rich there flourishes a secret world of crime drugs and illicit sex what starts as an engrossing mystery develops into a mesmerising novel of ideas a dazzling work of the imagination from one of britain s most original and controversial novelists
