the student nurse guide believes in inspiring future nurses through a different approach in training we believe doing a degree in nursing doesn't have to be unnecessarily hard stressful exhausting or financially ruin you we believe anyone can be a nurse no matter what challenges you have to overcome reflective practice is one of the very first things you will learn about when you start uni it is incredibly boring at first it seems a very daunting complex process with theories and models and something you have to get right if you want to qualify no pressure you also may have to write one of your first assignments about reflection and include something from practice to reflect on just deciding what to reflect on can seem to take forever let alone writing the actual reflective account why writing reflective accounts are important it helps you to remember key learning experiences you have recorded examples to draw on when writing assignments it helps develop your self awareness showcases your development journey achievements builds your critical analysis problem solving skills helps you to develop your reflection in action vs reflection on action it's part of the nmc code to be a reflective practitioner through continuous reflection if you haven't already started keeping a reflective journal you will need to soon most universities recommend students start one at the beginning of their degree to help them develop their reflection skills and as a way of keeping all their reflective accounts in one place the student nurse guide reflective journal was designed specifically for nursing students it includes an example of a student nurses reflective account to draw from if you get stuck each page includes space to record the date location key learning point to help you quickly recall find the subject read around to help develop your knowledge of key nursing skills as a result of your reflection a reflective writing outline is also included on every reflective account page to help guide your writing and keep you on track featuring a modern contemporary design in a5 size it is easy to keep at hand ready to record any learning opportunity as it happens with approx 180 lined pages the one thing to remember when reflecting is there is no right or wrong way of doing it the aim is not be perfect but to just record an event or experience which you feel contributed to your learning in some way remember this can be both positive and negative you don t have to be too critical of yourself once you have at least described what happened you can always come back and reflect on it at a later time always be honest with yourself when reflecting even if it makes you feel uncomfortable at times writing reflective accounts is a skill you will develop the more you practice it once you have learnt about the different theories and modules on reflection you will find a style you prefer and apply it to guide your own reflective account writing
