a gripping and urgent investigation into the secretive world of the global arms trade from a former member of the african national congress revealing the corruption and the cover ups at the heart of ex president jacob zuma s south africa andrew feinstein delves behind bae s controversial transactions in south africa tanzania and eastern europe and the revolving door relationships that characterise the us congressional military industrial complex the shadow world exposes both the formal government backed trade in arms as well as the illicit deals and lays bare the shocking links between the two essential reading for anyone who cares about justice transparency and accountability in both the public and private spheres and for anyone who believes that it is more important to invest in saving lives than in the machinery of death archbishop desmond tutu andrew feinstein has written an authoritative guide to the business of war chilling heartbreaking and enraging arundhati roy the nobility and justice of feinstein s sentiments are indisputable the arms trade is a loathsome commerce conducted by people who wear suits and occupy big boardroom tables but should have trouble sleeping at night max hastings sunday times remarkable and courageous the shadow world is a heroic book by an author who in writing it has put himself in the firing line iain macwhirter feinstein s book is a singularly powerful study and deserves to be read by anyone who wants to see light shining on such a shadowy world independent ten year old pax jackson doesn't know if he'll make it to his next birthday he has cancer and he's about to embark upon an unforgettable adventure at their favorite climbing tree pax and his best friend jayni meet wilmer a comical bellbird who introduces them to a magical realm of delightful and bewitching creatures the children sail a vast sea navigate a frightening forest and summit a perilous mountain in search of a mysterious man who might be able to heal pax will they be thwarted by a malevolent weeping willow a horde of bumfuzzles or the dragon snake the kids face their fears and the lurking evil that threatens to destroy them and they also contend with their own inner struggles pax wounded by jayni's ignorance of suffering and jayni resentful of how pax's illness has changed him will the mysterious healer meet their dreams and expectations pax and jayni return to their world with newfound joy and hope and a keen awareness of the very real magical world that lies within their shadow world in out of the shadow world colleen chao masterfully weaves a tale of suffering and joy children will be captivated readers develop empathy and a theology of suffering that equips them to both face difficult circumstances and love others who are experiencing hardship the question is this what do we accept as the truth of what we believe in we take many things by mere faith but is faith the right path in putting our trust in a matter just because someone says so do we dig into a matter with an open mind rather than prejudice and influences from others as we were growing up does our relationship with others influence our perception of what is truth and what is not the truth do we tend to accept something as truth because we don't have time or resources to check it out or is it because of an emphatic speech by a cleric that proclaims the bible is without error when in fact outside sources point to errors in dates events and even interpretation yet we close our eyes and ears because we ask how can this be many times the excuse is made that if so many people believe in a particular biblical statement or condition then it can't be wrong or can it debate on biblical issues end up boggling the general populous and many just walk away from it with disgust won't deal with it or dogmatically hold a position of biblical inerrancy this brings us down to getting into the trenches of discovering the truth as ugly and contentious it may seem this is especially true when ufology is brought into the picture especially when the topic of god or a god is introduced and examined in the light of various scientific disciplines after midnight is a collection of macabre stories and poems by robert lawrence that showcases his morbid imagination in these fourteen tales we see a blood thirsty cougar the hunter an infestation of flesh eating bugs joe's last letter a sinister serial killer spirit in the sky and many more this is a horrifying compilation that is best read after midnight refreshing a penetrating analysis of the assumptions that underlie seti and the entire enterprise of searching for life beyond earth chris mckay nature fifty years ago a young astronomer named frank drake first pointed a radio telescope at nearby stars in the hope of picking up a signal from an alien civilization thus began one of the boldest scientific projects in history the search for extraterrestrial intelligence seti after a half century of scanning the skies however astronomers have little to report but an eerie silence eerie because many scientists are convinced that the universe is teeming with life physicist and astrobiologist paul davies has been closely involved with seti for three decades and chairs the seti post detection taskgroup charged with deciding what to do if we're suddenly confronted with evidence of alien intelligence he believes the search so far has fallen into an anthropocentric trap assuming that an alien species will look think and behave much like us in this provocative book davies refocuses the search challenging existing ideas of what form an alien intelligence might take how it might try to communicate with us and how we should respond if it does paul davies gives us a panoramic view of the quickening search for cosmic company a fascinating tale stuffed with novel ideas about the nature of intelligence far beyond our own seth shostak senior astronomer seti institute an immensely readable investigation of the seti enterprise a wonderful book new scientist a far ranging look at what might happen here on earth when we make first contact highly recommended for both science fiction and astronomy buffs publishers weekly
