This tome is the third and final installment in the jungle trilogy. It tells a story based on the truth that is stranger than fiction: ancient artifacts found in South America, Southern Iraq, and around the world, and their astonishing connection to each other. Anirika and Nakima, the principle couple governing a small tribe of Ashenina-speaking people in the Peruvian jungle, discover that their culture, language, rituals, and ancient, cherished artifacts preserve the data needed by the descendant of a long-absent great lord of the ancient pre-Sumerian people called the Annunaki clan, who claim to have genetically engineered the human race. Now they are about to return and need the information Anirika and Nakima have unwittingly preserved for them. Will they give that information up willingly, or will they use their new-found knowledge to raise a challenge to the absentee lords?
