a young woman disappears a husband is suspected of murder stirring times for all the neighborhood

my book presents the four gospels from the perspective of another eyewitness a man named eleazar eleazar is the aramaic name for lazarus who is an historical character in the gospel of john i believe along with a minority of new testament scholars that lazarus was the principle author of that gospel as such he was certainly an eyewitness to jesus ministry in judea and perhaps even galilee i tried to write this book by keeping that narrator eleazar in the background because i don't want it to read primarily as a first person novel actually i do and i don't i say that because it is a lot more than an historical novel at times it certainly reads like a novel but the scholarly element is always present i do this by quoting most of the passages from the the four gospels and portions of acts all the quotes are in italics so the reader is sure they are from the new testament there are also numerous footnotes which are used to explain said passages eleazar is basically my sounding board as he reacts to the gospel story he is actually myself and the reader as we struggle to understand the gospel message and its challenges my aim in my ministry is to get people to read the bible particularly the gospels this book gives them the opportunity to do that but in a more relaxed and convenient way my book is not just for catholics but everyone regardless of their denomination i respect all protestant denominations and have learned a great deal from many of them my approach is that of a scripture scholar where in i do not espouse a particular doctrine but merely let the words of scripture speak for themselves
