doctoral thesis dissertation from the year 2018 in the subject politics topic peace and conflict security grade a atlantic international university course doctor of international relations with a major in international security language english abstract this paper is an attempt to deconstruct the concept of security which has been by tradition exclusively confined to the military realm we make evident that security takes into consideration a number of fields and that its major concern is the human person in addressing security in this work we do not only refer to the security of states the concept of national security but also to that of individuals human security governments should integrate in their security agendas not only their own security but also the security of their nationals accordingly this implies that they should protect their citizens against any threat to human life in other words governments or the people they rule do not merely face military threats from other states they are as well endangered by other threats to their security these threats are debated in this research paper we do not mean that military issues are not to be conceptualized within security frameworks but we do contend that they are not the unique issues to be securitized indeed this paper displays that other issues should be securitized
