Key features: the course adopts a four-fold approach to reflect the complex demands of academic writing: 1. the process approach, 2. the development of critical thinking in writing, 3. the micro skills of writing (e.g. effective introductions and conclusions and effective paragraphing) and 4. the importance of genre. An accompanying teacher's book is also available.

English for Academic Study Extended Writing Research Skills EAS Extended Writing Research Skills takes students step by step through the process of producing an extended piece of academic writing, helping them to develop the writing and research skills necessary for the task. Students make use of the source materials that accompany the course to produce their own piece of extended writing. They are then encouraged to use the strategies they have learned to produce a second piece of writing within their own field of study. The approach allows students to work independently, supported by detailed information and advice as well as model answers provided in both the course book and the instructor's manual. The units are organized as follows: introduction to the skills of extended writing and research; using evidence to support your ideas; structuring your project and finding information; developing your project; developing a focus; introductions, conclusions and definitions; incorporating data and illustrations; preparing for conference presentations and editing your work.
