Excerpt from Junior English Grammar Every teacher of grammar is sentence hungry and his need increases with his experience so that he is driven to foraging in arithmetics and histories and bibles occasionally we dream of a gorgeous feast of 300 perhaps of even 400 assorted sentences we speculate on how much it would cost to have these privately printed but the cost is too much or the idea seems extreme it's too good to be true so we patiently starve probably each of us supposes that his hunger is unnatural for surely publishers must know what quantity of food will sustain life and is unwilling to make public avowal of an abnormal craving at any rate we never satisfy our desire for my own part i was during twenty years as resigned as any hopeless coolie to a meager diet then one day in summer as i brooded upon the coming pangs of autumn i made the desperate resolution to gorge myself i gathered a hundred sentences to exhibit verbs fifty that were packed with the right kinds of nouns fifty that contained subjects after the verbs by hundreds and fifties i gathered them in it was a banquet to me for perhaps the first time in history a teacher of grammar was having all he wanted to eat about the publisher forgotten books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books find more at forgottenbooks com this book is a reproduction of an important historical work forgotten books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy in rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition we do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works
