Russian language for postgraduate researchers is specifically designed for postgraduate students whose research is focused on the history society or culture of Russian speaking communities around the world. 23 chapters of the textbook focus on a wide range of topics including Soviet and post-Soviet identities, masculinities and femininities, LGBTQ migration, ethnic diversity, public health, environment, and rewriting history. Many texts have been adapted from Russian language research articles and lectures by Russian language scholars to familiarize students with contemporary academic Russian. The textbook also contains practical activities, lists of active vocabulary and grammar tasks. Upon the completion of the textbook, students will learn how to analyse, translate, and summarise texts in different genres and registers. They will expand their specialist vocabulary, deepen their understanding of complex grammatical structures, and improve their communicative skills. A unique feature of this textbook is that each chapter has a 'How to' section which has practical tips on how to conduct research in Russian-speaking countries. The textbook can be used in class or for self-study and is ideally suited to students who have already reached a B1 level CEFR intermediate low, mid ACTFL proficiency, and who wish to improve their command of Russian up to B2 C1 CEFR intermediate high to advanced high ACTFL.
