this is an account of the military political and personal life of abdul harus nasution who was a seminal figure in modern indonesian history in the years prior to his effective sidelining in the 1960s he was an important commander during indonesia s struggle for independence who rose to become a key leader of the indonesian armed forces under the first president sukarno perhaps more significantly he developed ideas about guerrilla warfare that developed into a sophisticated and socially conservative doctrine for the mobilising of civilian communities this in turn became the underpinning of the repressive military backed new order regime of indonesia s second president suharto who ruled from 1966 until 1998 and which nasution initially supported understanding nasution s thinking about total people s resistance is therefore very important for understanding the broader trajectory of indonesian political history that includes both the new order and the emerging democratic regime that developed after its collapse the new political system that called itself the reform era was in many ways a direct reaction to the new order military's penetration and close control of Indonesian society but it has never dismantled the shadow state structure of the armed forces that Nasution designed and Suharto perfected in other words as this book shows Nasution's legacy still looms large today in Jokowi's Indonesia this is not the first assessment of Nasution's life but it differs from earlier works by its investigation of Nasution's personal life and in particular his relationship with the well off and well connected Gondokusumo family of which he became a member by his marriage to Johana Sunarti Gondokusumo the author's thorough investigation of Nasution's relationship with Sunarti and her father offers important new insights into how Nasution's ideas evolved as does the translations of important extracts from Nasution's own voluminous writing included in the text perhaps we shall never know the truth about Indonesia's failed supposedly communist coup of 1965 this book analyzes Indonesian literature produced during the new order period that deals with the events of 1965 1966 and its consequences since the Bali bombings of 2002 and the rise of political Islam Indonesia has frequently occupied media headlines nevertheless the history of the fourth largest country on earth remains relatively unknown Adrian Vickers' book first published in 2005 traces the history of an island country comprising some 240 million people from the colonial period through revolution and independence to the present framed around the life story of Pramoedya Ananta Toer Indonesia's most famous and controversial novelist and playwright the book journeys through the social and cultural mores of Indonesian society focusing on the experiences of ordinary people in this new edition the author brings the story up to date revisiting his argument as to why Indonesia has yet to realise its potential as a democratic country he also examines the rise of fundamentalist Islam which has haunted Indonesia since the fall of Suharto
