what should a church do look at your church's calendar and you will learn something of its mission but how do you know it's the mission Jesus gave in the life of the church Joe Thorn explains the mission of the church and the three rhythms for fulfilling it the result is a simple memorable model for church life and ministry grounded in scripture and aligned with historic practices useful for training in membership class discipleship groups and elder boards and even for devotional reading the life of the church is at once theological practical and experiential readers will not simply be informed but led to a deeper conviction about their role in the body of Christ pastors will be equipped to refocus their ministries and Christians to fulfill their purpose be and make disciples if you wonder what it means to be saved into a body of believers why the various parts of a worship service matter and how to engage in the world as a citizen of heaven then the life of the church is for you it answers this critical question why does the church exist and how does it shape my life as the Protestant reformers did so twenty first century Christians also recognize the need to distinguish between the true and false church thus they find themselves looking closely at the modern church to determine whether it is a true and faithful church today's Christians know that proper criteria are necessary to discern the true church the most common criteria wrote John Calvin are that the word of God is rightly preached and heard and that the sacraments are administered according to Christ's institution moreover Martin Luther said that suffering is a telltale sign of God's people while Anabaptist and Reformed Christians included discipline among the distinguishing marks of the church these standards take on particular poignancy today the global church continues to live under severe persecution and the American church characterized by a lack of discipline has been wounded by its own sins of chasing sex and power in this collection of essays first given at annual meetings of the Evangelical Theological Society the authors take time to reflect on the reformational marks of the church in order to help reform Christ's bride with contributions from Edward W. Klink III Duane Litfin J. Stephen Yuille J. V. Fesko Keith D. Stanglin Greg Cochran Jeremy M. Kimble Guy Waters Justin I. McLendon a New York Times bestselling title with over 300,000 units sold in which Francis Chan challenges Christians to lean into God's original desire for the church do you want more from your church experience does the pure Gospel put you in a place of awe are you ready to rethink church as you know it sit with Francis Chan and be reminded that you are a part of something much bigger than yourself something sacred in this bestselling book you will explore deep biblical truths about the church understand God's dreams for his bride learn the stories of ordinary people God is using to change the world letters to the church reminds us of how powerful how glorious the church once was and calls us to once again be the church God intended us to be for further individual or small group study check out letters to the church study guide this book is intended as an aid to believers in developing a daily time of morning revival with the lord in his word at the same time it provides a limited review of the international training for elders and responsible ones webcast from anaheim california on april 16 18 2021 the general subject of the training was vital factors for the recovery of the church life through intimate contact with the lord in his word the believers can be constituted with life and truth and thereby equipped to prophesy in the meetings of the church unto the building up of the body of christ uncovering seven lessons from scripture and the puritans john carpenter applies the principles and practices that are often neglected by the church today but are key in making a church truly biblical drawing on his background as a scholar of puritanism and years of planting and pastoring a church carpenter establishes each pillar on the bible and shows through scripture and practical examples how they work beginning with the tale of how an eyewitness account of the 9 11 terrorist attack on the world trade center shows us the perils of only seeing part of god s revelation we see why we must listen to what god says about himself why we must understand that the gospel is not a self help plan why salvation is so simple that it can be reduced to a bumper sticker jesus saves but is still so often misunderstood leading to unconverted people leading churches and why believers aren t called just to go to church but to be covenanted members of a specific church where they can be corrected by their pastors and where worship is centered on god not on personalities putting on a show or attracting crowds skim the book of acts and you ll find a church that s bold energetic empowered unstoppable a church in fact that looks nothing like the one we have today little wonder so many believers jump from congregation to congregation searching in vain for the real thing in the church ken hutcherson reveals how god s original intention for his church has been distorted under stifling layers of tradition denominationalism racism and fear only when we strip away those layers will we discover god s unchanging heart for the church and his unchanging will for us to be a people of truth of power of reconciliation and of love jesus said he would build his church our job is to follow the church of the open door calls us to a dynamic spirit filled life as the body of christ warren wiersbe s study of acts the epistles and revelation paints a picture of what the church should do and be gospel of truth for repentance by apostle johnson wichira of the church of god apostle johnson wachira was inspired by god to write this message to all the god loving people of the world who love the truth of the gospel this gospel lays bare that truth the truth of god s word which all denominations of the world fail to preach in their man made churches read for yourself understand and repent and be baptized into the death of christ to be one of his saints to live a life in christ

what makes a church a church is it where three or more are gathered is it songs and a sermon on sunday does it require structure and leadership how do you know the character of the church dispels confusion by describing the five elements of a biblical church concise accessible and historically informed it teaches god s design for church so you know what to look for in one or even how to lead one useful for training in membership classes discipleship groups and elder boards and even for devotional reading the character of the church is at once theological practical and experiential readers will not simply be informed but led to a deeper appreciation of the church of god and its essential marks the word of god is faithfully preached the sacraments are rightly administered leadership is biblically formed and functioning discipline is practiced with grace the mission of the church is shared by all this book will bring churches and christians back to the biblical picture of a local body perfect for any believer eager to grow and help others do likewise
