Mount Allison University has consistently been ranked among the leading undergraduate universities in Canada over the last two decades. How does a small town university with a population of just 2,500 students achieve such outstanding successes year after year? According to Dr. Louise Wasyliuk and Dr. Jennifer L. Tomes, it is the exceptional quality of teaching that makes Mount Allison truly stand out from the crowd. In this volume, Wasyliuk and Tomes have assembled essays from across disciplines that examine the diversity of pedagogical methods and philosophies that instructors currently employ to give Mount Allison students a modern, critical, and conscientious education experience. Arranged around the themes of course conceptualization, targeted teaching techniques, and going beyond performance assessments to measure student outcomes, the contributors' essays range widely in scope. Their collective theme, however, is the depth and breadth of the high quality of teaching offered at Mount Allison.
