these fifteen stories by ann beattie garnered universal critical acclaim on their first publication earning beattie the reputation as the most celebrated new voice in american fiction today these stories a vintage thunderbird the lawn party la petite danseuse de quatorze ans to name a few seem even more powerful and are read and studied as classics of the short story form spare and elegant yet charged with feeling and with the tension of things their characters cannot say they are masterly portraits of improvised lives collected interviews with the quintessential new yorker writer author of such books as the doctor s house follies and falling in place here is the complete collection of the author s stories previously published in the new yorker between the years 1974 2006 for the first time the complete stories of the master chronicler of tradition and transformation in the twentieth century south born and raised in tennessee peter taylor was the great chronicler of the american upper south capturing its gossip and secrets its divided loyalties and morally complicated legacies in tales of pure distilled brilliance now for his centennial year the library of america and acclaimed short story writer ann beattie present an unprecedented two volume edition of taylor s complete short fiction all fifty nine of the stories published in his lifetime in the order in which they were composed this first volume offers twenty nine early masterpieces including such classics as a spinster s tale what you hear from em venus cupid folly and time and miss leonora when last seen as a special feature an appendix in the first volume gathers three stories taylor published as an undergraduate that show the early emergence of his singular style and sensibility a collection of striking short stories filled with memorable characters from award winning author ann beattie peopled by characters struggling with second marriages abandoning artistic aspirations or coming to terms with the betrayal of their own expectations this collection of eleven stories from ann beattie makes it strikingly clear why she is known as one of american literature s most adept explorers and interpreters of the unraveling edges of life miami herald from the elegiac story the famous poet amid bougainvillea in which two men trade ruminations about the odd experience of being cared for by those you are meant to serve to the big breasted pilgrim wherein a famous chef gets a series of bewildering phone calls from george stephanopoulos expressing clinton s desire to dine at his house to two stories in which family myths turn out to be both inaccurate and prescient perfect recall comprises beattie s most ambitious and complex work yet the now classic utterly unique voice of ann beattie is so dry it throws off sparks her eye endowed with the emotional equivalent of x ray vision her characters are young men and women discovering what it means to be a grown up in a country that promised them they d stay young forever and here in shapely penetrating stories beattie confirms why she is one of the most widely imitated yet surely inimitable literary stylists of her generation in the burning house beattie s characters go from dealing drugs to taking care of a bereaved friend they watch their marriages fail not with a bang but with a wisecrack and afterward they may find themselves trading confidences with their spouses new lovers the burning house proves that beattie has no peer when it comes to revealing the hidden shapes of our relationships or the depths of tenderness grief and anger that lie beneath the surfaces of our daily lives picturing will the widely acclaimed new novel by ann beattie unravels the complexities of a postmodern family there s will a curious five year old who listens to the heartbeat of a plant through his toy stethoscope jody his mother a photographer poised on the threshold of celebrity mel jody s perfect perhaps too perfect lover and wayne the father who left will without warning and now sees his infrequent visits as a crimp in his bedhopping beattie shows us how these lives intersect attract and repel one another with dazzling shifts and moments of heartbreak directness thirty six stories eight appearing in a book for the first time and a generous selection from her earlier collections give us ann beattie at stunning mid career emotionally complex edgy and funny the stories encompass a huge range of tone and feeling the wife of a couple who have lost a child comforts her husband with an amazing act of tenderness a man who s been shifting from place to place always finding the same kind of people sometimes the same people in various configurations tries to locate himself in the universe an intricate dance of adultery brings down a marriage a housekeeper experiences a startling epiphany while looking into her freezer one hot summer night the long humorous roll of a couple s four night fight finally explodes into happiness beattie has often been called the chronicler of her generation and these stories capture perfectly the moods and actions of our world since the seventies people on the move living in group houses smoking too much dope people settling down splitting up coming to terms margaret atwood said of a previous collection that a new beattie is almost like a fresh bulletin from the front we snatch it up eager to know what s happening out there on the edge of that shifting and dubious no man s land known as interpersonal relations the new stories have the same power a family secret is revealed in a strange and puzzling act that becomes understood only many years later in an aids ward certain questions take on special significance a hostile eight year old and his father s live in girlfriend move in fits and starts toward détente in prose by turns laserlike and lyrical these memorable evocative stories authentically recall the details and feelings of their time but the truths revealed are as in all fiction of the first rank timeless acknowledged as an original and important voice in american letters ann beattie published her first short story at age twenty five in 1972 four years later she issued her first short story collection and first novel concurrently this volume brings together book reviews criticism interviews biographical materials and bibliography spanning the entire corpus of beattie s fiction to date five short story collections and four novels published through 1991 the editor s introduction analyzes the various critical stances both positive and negative informed also by her own 1992 interview with beattie which appears as the final selection newly commissioned essays supplement the reviews articles and earlier interviews to bring a wide range of contemporary theory to bear on the fiction an extensive primary and secondary bibliography complete the work collection contains two folders containing correspondence between ann beattie and greg gatenby between 1984 and 2005 the letters are both personal and professional in nature as their writers discuss writing the harbourfront reading series and the harbourfront reading festival mentioning authors in attendance such as margaret atwood and j k rowling and their personal lives it is clear from the letters that the two are friends most of the letters are typed some are print outs of emails and gatenby and beattie also exchange photocopies of articles and typescripts of their own writing including a bound draft of mrs nixon by ann beattie from an award winning national bestselling author comes a ferociously funny novel the los angeles times about an advice columnist in vermont whose life is about to be turned upside down lucy spenser the miss lonelyhearts of a chic counter cultural magazine finds her unflappable vermont life completely upended by her teenaged soap opera star niece nicole and her hangers on a collection of short fiction twelve works in all including two never before published novellas here are disconnected marriages and uneasy reunions nostalgic reminiscences and sudden epiphanies a remarkable and moving collage of contemporary lives new york magazine was born in 1968 after a run as an insert of the new york herald tribune and quickly made a place for itself as the trusted resource for readers across the country with award winning writing and photography covering everything from politics and food to theater and fashion the magazine s consistent mission has been to reflect back to its audience the energy and excitement of the city itself while celebrating new york as both a place and an idea an unsettling novel that traces the faltering orbits of the members of one family from a hidden love triangle to the ten year old son whose problem may pull everyone down haunting and disturbingly powerful these stories established ann beattie as the most celebrated new voice in american fiction and an absolute master of the short story form beattie captures perfectly the profound longings that came to define an entire generation with insight compassion and humor in her latest novel the author of another you combines intensely realistic description and an effortless command of mood to examine the treacherous difference between love and fascination between what we know about other people and what we think we know dara falcon is someone other people think they know charismatic and theatrical she has no sooner arrived in a new england town than she is playing footsie with one man inveigling a diamond ring from another and getting her new friend jean to sell her a car for one dollar as ann beattie follows dara s chaotic progress through the lives of jean and her family she braids subplots and vibrant characters into a work that is compassionate tartly funny and teeming with life set along the east coast from maine to key west this collection of stories explores unconventional friendships frustrated loves mortality and aging
