seminar paper from the year 2011 in the subject romance studies latin american studies grade 1 3 university of toronto language english abstract in her essay postcolonialism and latin american literature the case of carlos fuentes nadia lie describes two different currents of postcolonialism the first one is the literature that grew out of colonial experience in latin america and is considered an answer to the over present literature of the oppressing european literary traditions the second one is characterized by a set of theoretical concerns and reading strategies rather than merely writing back a term introduced by bill ashcroft gareth griffiths and helen tiffin this approach suggests that cultural differences are constructed by replacing the strong binary opposition us versus the other with concepts of hybridity in betweenness and border thinking see lie 2005 139 140 the early work of mexican author carlos fuentes 1928 can be seen in an intermediate position between these two concepts even though the theme of otherness and opposition is very present in his work as can be seen in la frontera de cristal 1995 and his early novel aura 1962 his writing is full of intertextual references that show his appreciation for both european and latin american literary tradition as part of the boom movement in latin american literature he also uses supernatural and gothic elements that sometimes make it hard or even impossible to distinguish between reality and illusion according to this aesthetic unreal things are treated as if realistic and mundane and mundane things as if unreal plots while often based on real experiences incorporate strange fantastic and legendary elements mythical peoples speculative settings and characters who while plausible could also be unreal and combine the true the imaginary and the nonexistent in such a way that they are difficult to separate pope 1996 229 fuentes novel aura is an early example of this tradition the purpose of this essay will be a postcolonial approach to the novel showing fuentes position in the discourse of postcolonial identities and literatures the argument will be based on notions of time space and intertextual references that can be found in aura hybridity in the literature of medieval england offers a wide ranging exploration of hybridity in medieval english literature anxiety about hybridity surfaces in characters of mixed ethnic identity in the romances but anxiety is found also in the intersection of the natural and the supernatural and its site can be located inside the human body s unstable physical frame living and dead as much as in the cultural and social forces at work upon the human body politic at large hybridity is unlike other constructs of difference in that while it is grounded in difference hybridity points toward sameness the four types of hybridity studied in medieval english literature show that hybridity can resolve the problems caused by difference understanding medieval hybridity can help us to deal with our own contemporary struggles with the mixtures of our own lives and societies
