the fourteen prominent analytic philosophers writing here engage with the cluster of philosophical questions raised by conceptual art they address four broad questions what kind of art is conceptual art what follows from the fact that conceptual art does not aim to have aesthetic value what knowledge or understanding can we gain from conceptual art how ought we to appreciate conceptual art conceptual art broadly understood by the contributors as beginning with marcel duchamp s ready made s and as continuing beyond the 1970s to include some of today s contemporary art is grounded in the notion that the artist s idea is central to art and contrary to tradition that the material work is by no means essential to the art as such to use the words of the conceptual artist sol lewitt in conceptual art the idea of the concept is the most important aspect of the work and the execution is a perfunctory affair given this so called dematerialization of the art object the emphasis on cognitive value and the frequent appeal to philosophy by many conceptual artists there are many questions that are raised by conceptual art that should be of interest to analytic philosophers why then has so little work been done in this area this volume is most probably the first collection of papers by analytic anglo american philosophers tackling these concerns head on contributors margaret boden diarmuid costello gregory currie david davies peter goldie robert hopkins matthew kieran peter lamarque dominic mciver lopes derek matravers elisabeth
