hyun joo kim claims that bonhoeffer transforms and reconstructs the augustinian doctrine of original sin by shifting the hamartiological premise from the doctrine of god to the doctrine of the church based on his lutheran resources in bonhoeffer s view augustine s doctrine of original sin does not fully relate the doctrine of sin to the responsibility of the saints in order to reform augustinian hamartiology bonhoeffer appropriates augustine s notion of the church as the whole christ totus christus which is located in augustine s ecclesiology kim explicates how augustine relates his epistemological premises in his christianized platonism to his formulation of the doctrine of original sin and examines how luther s christocentric standpoint transforms augustine s anthropology and ultimately leads luther to his relational hamartiology kim contends that bonhoeffer s later hamartiology and ethics contain the most distinctive characteristics of bonhoeffer s doctrine of sin in that he not only incorporates both the active and passive dimensions of sin but also intensifies his continuing notion of vicarious representative action towards the church community the question isn t whether grace is there for you in judaism the question is do you have the courage to accept it chesed isn t a reward it is reality god s grace isn t limited to what we want to happen or might like to happen god s grace is what is happening whether we like it or not in short god s grace is the giving of all to all from the introduction ask almost any jew whether grace is a central concept in judaism and an essential element in living jewishly and chances are their answer will be no but that s the wrong answer this fascinating foray into god s love freely given offers you regardless of your level of jewish involvement a way to answer that question in the affirmative drawing from ancient and contemporary traditional and non traditional jewish wisdom this book reclaims the idea of grace in judaism in three ways it offers a view of god that helps you understand what grace is why grace is and how grace manifests in the world it sets forth a reading of judaism that is grace filled an understanding of creation shabbat and other jewish practices from a grace filled perspective it challenges you to be embraced and transformed by grace and to live life as a vehicle for god s grace thereby fulfilling the promise of being created in god s image and likeness
