we live in a day of fast information fast fingers fast food fast shipping fast words fast anger and fast judgment our fight or flight impulses keep us on high alert aided by mobile devices that vibrate each time another crisis strikes all this fastness can easily interfere with a slow intentional life grounded in god s love christian faith has deep treasures and practices to offer us how will we live and who will we be in this highly charged era where politics economics environment and social norms are under significant duress come explore quieter more intentional ways of being and how these might attune us to the slow work of god in order that we might love one another and the world as god does our chapters pair a lure to move fast with an invitation to slow becoming slow to anger is an invitation to empathy slow to judge is an invitation to humility and slow to grasp is an invitation to contentment ultimately each of these invitations is a movement toward god archbishop desmond tutu nobel peace prize winner chair of the elders and chair of south africa s truth and reconciliation commission along with his daughter the reverend mpho tutu offer a manual on the art of forgiveness helping us to realize that we are all capable of healing and transformation tutu s role as the chair of the truth and reconciliation commission taught him much about forgiveness if you asked anyone what they thought was going to happen to south africa after apartheid almost universally it was predicted that the country would be devastated by a comprehensive bloodbath yet instead of revenge and retribution this new nation chose to tread the difficult path of confession forgiveness and reconciliation each of us has a deep need to forgive and to be forgiven after much reflection on the process of forgiveness tutu has seen that there are four important steps to healing admitting the wrong and acknowledging the harm telling one s story and witnessing the anguish asking for forgiveness and granting forgiveness and renewing or releasing the relationship forgiveness is hard work sometimes it even feels like an impossible task but it is only through walking this fourfold path that tutu says we can free ourselves of the endless and unyielding cycle of pain and retribution the book of forgiving is both a touchstone and a tool offering tutu s wise advice and showing the way to experience forgiveness ultimately forgiving is the only means we have to heal ourselves and our aching world
