michelle van loon helps us treasure our time as a gift and a spiritual responsibility and god as faithfully present in all our moments and days people rarely slow down to experience their days and so they feel rushed through life even as they begin to suspect that life lacks significance by introducing and reintroducing us to the feasts and festivals of the bible as well as the special celebrations of the christian calendar moments and days restores a sacred sense of time throughout our year enriching our experience of each holy day and enlivening our experience of even the most ordinary time this pioneering work invites readers to embark on a transformative journey through the heart of liturgical worship and scriptural proclamation it introduces a new tier to biblical hermeneutics exploring the ways in which the liturgical event and the ecclesial community color the interpretation of scripture weaving together insights from gadamer s philosophical hermeneutics with the rich tapestry of catholic liturgy the author proposes that the meaning of a proclaimed scripture passage emerges not from an analysis of the text itself but in the vibrant interplay of multiple horizons bible lectionary homilist and worshiper through a lens of play and festival the intricate relationship between tradition and contemporary worship is explored showcasing how the sensory richness of the catholic liturgy shapes the interpretation of scripture it challenges readers to view the lectionary as a living text intimately connected to the worshiping assembly and the modern world this thought provoking work offers both theoretical insights and practical implications for scholars clergy and worshipers alike it inspires a fresh perspective that resonates with the contemporary catholic experience guiding worshipers toward a profound engagement with scripture in the dynamic event of liturgical celebration the mass of paul vi is so deeply flawed that it cannot be repaired from within whether by copious helpings of smells and bells by arbitrary attempts at traditionalizing or by an official reform of the reform and the roman mass inherited from the age of faith did not and does not need to be reformed along antiquarian or pastoral utilitarian lines as it fulfills the highest act of religion in a fitting manner perfected over many centuries of prayerful practice the liturgical revolution driven by ideology culminated in balkanization banality and boredom its fabrications must be retired from use and the traditional rite must be restored to its rightful place of honor in the church of the latin rite such are the bold claims defended in close the workshop why the old mass isn t broken and the new mass can t be fixed in which peter kwasniewski refutes the reformers own case for reforming the old rite and illustrates the subtle dangers to which clergy and laity are exposed by attempts at doing the new rite reverently simultaneously he reminds traditionalists that they should aspire to the noblest possible celebration of the mass always faithfully observing the rubrics and resisting bad habits that interfere with the rite's full splendor and efficacy unseemly haste minimalism ineptitude and the itch for pastoral experimentation if the catholic church in the west is ever to recover her internal soundness and external cultural influence her shepherds and her flocks must let the ill advised council of the 1960s and the bauhaus liturgy cobbled together in its name lapse into obsolescence so that the perennially fresh theology of the council of trent and the immortally beautiful liturgy of the roman church may once again flourish unfettered
