this book is addressed to the students of gap and ade degrees it contains the two following subjects contracts and companies gap and commercial law ade and it adjusts perfectly to the requirements of its study exigences 100 that is the reason why it follows an unusual order among mercantilists since it brings together content that usually appears in different volumes thus students will have in their hands all the theoretical content of the subject and it will be essential for them whether they follow the subject physically attending classes or remotely through the virtual modality of the gap degree the study plans for these degrees have minimal legal content i would even say ridiculous at gap they do study law in other subjects but only public law never private that is why the manual begins with an introductory topic 1 on the historical origin and concept of commercial law the topic is explained at length because it is essential and would not be understood otherwise topic 2 on the concept

this volume offers an in depth analysis of the current status of the law and legal practice of personal security rights in the eu the impact of the financial crisis is specifically considered and the treatment of personal security rights in the basel ii accord is critically addressed while focusing on italian and spanish legal systems this comparative study includes extensive references to other eu member states the influence of eu private law on this area is also explored the implications of a harmonised regime for personal security rights in the eu are analysed both from an economic and a legal perspective in this context specific reference is made to the latest academic works and policy proposals for eu legal unification principles of european contract law draft common frame of reference the principles of european law on commercial agency franchise and distribution contracts pel cafdc 2006 are an academic proposal of the study group on a european civil code for the european wide regulation of the contents of these three types of agreements the academic analysis franchising in european contract law focuses on the harmonised principles on franchising at present all member states of the eu have their own regulation on franchising this situation might change in the light of the political process of europeanization of contract law that was initiated by the european commission in 2001 as a result of that process the principles on franchising could be declared a set of rules which might be opted for by the parties to franchising contracts europe wide to govern their relationship in this analysis the main obligations in franchising in pel cafdc are compared with those under french and spanish law the main conclusion of this thesis research has been that the main obligations of parties in franchising under the pel cafdc resemble those under french and spanish law eventually differences will arise depending on how national courts weigh the interests of the parties in each case a second conclusion has been that a choice for the pel cafdc instead of for french and spanish law could be considered a rational alternative concerning the applicable system of remedies and legal certainty it is often assumed that shareholders have rights not duties in recent years however this assumption has come under intense scrutiny in all aspects of company law and capital market law legislation the courts soft law and scholarship and in europe especially major changes are under way across a diverse spectrum all the way from revised contractual arrangements to mandatory statutory provisions such a shift has important implications for the fundamentals of european company law and there is a need to examine shareholders duties and to consider where this trend is taking shareholders and their stance in law this focused collection of essays by twenty notable scholars addresses this complex subject from a highly informative and useful variety of perspectives examining shareholders duties along three axes types of investee companies types of shareholders and types of business situations the essays deal with such topics and issues as the following shareholders duties as reflections of the interests they are intended to safeguard shareholders duties to society shareholders disclosure obligations duties of parent companies institutional investor s fiduciary duty how regulatory duties constrain value reducing forms of opportunism the state s continuing duties in the transformation of state owned companies significant shareholders duties in transactions with the company and powerful shareholders duty not to abuse right examining the implications of this shift in discourse how shareholders duties are coming to the fore under the impetus of legislation legal doctrine case law and enforcement strategies as well as its ideological underpinnings this book offers a comprehensive and in depth consideration of this rapidly developing field it will prove of inestimable value not only to policymakers and academics but also to investors and practitioners committed to creating conditions favourable to sustainable economic growth and responsible business behaviour
