the prevailing mediation model and process is drawn primarily from the west for a long time there has been a call for conflict management approaches that are more appropriate for the asian context this book answers the call by identifying cultural values and norms that affect how conflicts may be perceived through asian lenses and how conflict management processes and practices should be structured

this book investigates long term development issues for members of the association of southeast asian nations asean it finds that with the proper policy mix including domestic structural reforms and bold initiatives for regional integration asean has the potential to reach by 2030 the average quality of life enjoyed today in advanced economies and to fulfill its aspirations to become a resilient inclusive competitive and harmonious rich region key challenges moving forward are to enhance macroeconomic and financial stability support equitable growth promote competitiveness and innovation and protect the environment overcoming these challenges to build a truly borderless economic region implies eliminating remaining barriers to the flow of goods services and production factors strengthening competitiveness and the institutional framework and updating some governing principles but asean should not merely copy the european union it must maintain its flexibility and pragmatism without creating a bloated regional bureaucracy the study s main message is that through closer integration asean can form a partnership for achieving shared prosperity in the region and around the globe based on the experiences of the past and the imperatives of the present this outstanding anthology reflects governance issues from a south asian perspective it is comprehensive yet accessible making it a valuable resource for students of finance and economics as well as for banks and financial consultants at the outset the subregions of east and north east asia are more dissimilar than similar with different stages of development economic structure and size political systems and culture due to these differences and long standing historical and geopolitical tensions institutionalized regionalization has not made much progress yet there are increasing interactions both officially and at the grassroots level reflecting the growing importance and interdependence within this group of countries from an economic standpoint regional integration is more likely to be successful when countries have complementarities in factor endowments that can be shared to mutual benefit this publication looks into how greater cooperation and integration could offer solutions to not only the old problems of poverty and political instability facing the subregion but also the new challenges posed by economic growth such as emerging income gaps environmental degradation urbanization and congestion and various social issues years after 9 11 the global war on terror is still not over the deepening crisis in iraq has been accompanied by rising violence in asia as the bombings in indonesia show the 18 specialists and policymakers who have contributed to this book assess how the security scenario in the asia pacific has changed in response to these events the asia pacific is rent by communal conflicts that have generated local jihads which fuel regional and global jihads this book assesses state responses to terrorism paying attention to neglected factors such as money laundering the emerging role of the eu the growing fear of the us and increasing concern about the way anti terrorist legislation curtails civil liberties with the benefit of extensive fieldwork and access to unique sources in many languages the contributors analyze key features of the local security scenarios pakistan s precarious situation is explored here from many angles including islamic militancy the role of the military and the peace process with india again domestic failures support regional and global terror regional anti terrorist collaboration is also hampered by south east asia s counter terrorism dilemmas setbacks in the philippine us security relationship the asian arms race and growing fears of the us national missile defence system and how this system will be perceived by china the history of state sponsored terrorism and millenarian ideology are crucial to these regional scenarios the latter in the particular form of japan s aum shinrikyo movement reminds us that militant islamists are not uniquely destructive an important addition to the literature on terrorism and security this in depth and comprehensive analysis of a complex and increasingly unstable region will be welcomed by political scientists scholars policymakers and those seeking a better understanding of whether the global war on terror has changed the security architecture of the asia pacific in a positive way
