death is not a mere possibility but a certainty for all of us yet today's society unrealistically portrays childhood as a time of unremittant joy and freedom unfortunately the reality of life may suddenly bring children face to face with tragic circumstances such as the death of their pet the terminal illness of their parent their own struggle with life threatening disease the accidental death of their sibling or the suicide of a friend the gravity of any of these situations takes children beyond the innocence of childhood and plunges them into a world that is frightening and full of uncertainty unfortunately our perceptions and attitudes toward death do not equip children with the tools to help them cope adequately with such overwhelming experiences beyond the innocence of childhood is a collection of forty chapters which are divided into three separate volumes the overall purpose of this series is to answer the question how do we as educators clinicians other professionals and parents help children and adolescents deal with threat to their lives dying death and bereavement in this three volume set the editors have brought together a number of well known educators researchers and practitioners who share their knowledge and expertise concerning the care and well being of children and adolescents
