in recent years politicians led by president obama and prominent senators and governors have teamed with extremists on campus to portray our nation s institutions of higher learning as awash in a violent crime wave and to suggest preposterously that university leaders professors and students are indifferent to female sexual assault victims in their midst neither of these claims has any bearing to reality but they have achieved widespread acceptance thanks in part to misleading alarums from the obama administration and biased media coverage led by the new york times the frenzy about campus rape has helped stimulate and has been fanned by ideologically skewed campus sexual assault policies and lawless commands issued by federal bureaucrats to force the nation s all too compliant colleges and universities essentially to presume the guilt of accused students the result has been a widespread disregard of such bedrock american principles as the presumption of innocence and the need for fair play this book uses hard facts to set the record straight it explores among other things nearly two dozen of the cases since 2010 in which students who in all likelihood would have or have subsequently been found not guilty in a court of law have in a lopsided process been hastily and carelessly branded as sex criminals and expelled or otherwise punished by their colleges often after being tarred and feathered by their fellow students and it shows why all students and eventually society as a whole are harmed when our nation s universities abandon pursuit of truth and seek instead to accommodate the passions of the mob as detailed in the new epilogue some encouraging events have transpired since this book was first published in october 2016 a majority of the judicial rulings in dozens of lawsuits by male students claiming their schools treated them unfairly and discriminated against them based on their gender have rebuked the schools for their handling of these cases and education secretary betsy devo called for fairness to accused students and accusers alike revoked most of the guilt presuming obama era policies and began a protracted rule making process designed to compel procedural fairness and nondiscrimination

the sourcing and recruitment community has come a long way from what it used to be 20 years back and as recently as 5 years back and the amount of technology changes has kept everyone on the tenterhooks the methods that you would adopt or boolean strings that used to work today may not work tomorrow and there is a constant learning curve to keep oneself updated and also brings a healthy level of competition among individuals eager to show their wares the volume based or niche skills hiring has become a race to the finish the individuals with the super sourcing as well as relationship management skills tend to be more often than not the winners in the end the recruitment community looks to find the needle in the haystack every day to find the right candidate to fulfill the hiring manager mandate the ever bulging stock of search strings productivity tricks and their ways of thinking they implement are a stuff of legend the tools do not make a sourcer or recruiter but they should always be seen as an assistant to free up their time for more productive conversations with prospective candidates this exercise is an attempt to equip the talent acquisition community with the various ways and methods to optimize their time and find the relevant information trends movers and shakers etc to be better prepared to find relevant candidates for their clients internal or external it is by no means an exhaustive list but a start nonetheless
