english abstract the united nations un in international relations is considered to be a supranational organization currently the un consist of 193 member states and it stresses out four main purposes which are maintaining peace and security developing friendly relations amongst states helping states to work together and being a centre for harmonizing the actions of nations cf un org en aboutun additionally the un is seen as a collective security system which offers states to settle down any disputes and for solving social economic humanitarian and ecological problems on international level cf gareis varwick 2006 85 according to this purposes the un has acted and authorized multilateral interventions in many states which were affected by conflicts the libyan conflict in 2011 as an example was one of the cases where the un has responded to the actions and the multilateral intervention in libya leaves questions how does the un shape the behavior of its member states and why does the un act in general the theory of social constructivism by alexander wendt can provide an explanation to these questions the theory defines balances of power between states and explains the behavior of states furthermore it claims that international relations are social and the international system is constituted by ideas cf jackson sorensen 2006 162 but the main question which shall be discussed in this term paper is therefore how can the theory of social constructivism explain the actions by the united nations security council in libya first of all core assumptions of social constructivism has to be discussed in order to explain further analysis of this term paper after the illustration of the core assumptions of social constructivism the powers and functions of the un security council shall be described because the security council as one of the most important main body of the un is the only executive body that act regarding any threat of peace and security thereafter the situation in libya as the empirical example have to be mentioned what exactly happened in libya and what did the un especially the security council do altogether with the core assumptions of social constructivism the theoretical knowledge of the security council and the information of the libyan conflict the main question shall be answered at the end the conclusion shall summarize the term paper s outcome of the analysis essay from the year 2016 in the subject history america grade 1 7 language english abstract while the second world war was slowly drawing to a close both in europe and in asia the united states government was already in the midst of making comprehensive plans for a more stable and peaceful international order in the years to come in that regard senior executives attached particular importance to the budding united nations organization a transnational institution which notably president truman viewed as one of the seminal centrepieces of world peace and security two vital speeches delivered by truman in the spring and early summer of 1945 amply reflected this sentiment
