she has received numerous accolades including an academy award and two golden globes and in 2004 became the first ever american woman to be nominated for a best director oscar from the virgin suicides to the bling ring her work carves out new spaces for the expression of female subjectivity that embraces rather than rejects femininity fiona handyside here considers the careful counter balance of vulnerability with the possibilities and pleasures of being female in coppola s films albeit for the white and the privileged through their recurrent themes of girlhood fame power sex and celebrity chapters reveal a post feminist aesthetic that offers sustained intimate engagements with female characters these characters inhabit luminous worlds of girlish adornments light and sparkle and yet find homes in unexpected places from hotels to swimming pools palaces to strip clubs resisting stereotypes and the ordinary in this original study handyside brings critical attention to a rare female auteur and in so doing contributes to important analyses of post feminism authorship in film and the growing field of girlhood studies

we have reached a tricky crossroads in modern women s lives and our collective daughters are bearing the brunt of some intolerable pressures although feminism has made great strides forward since our mothers and grandmothers day many of the key issues equality of pay equality in the home representation at senior level in the private public and political sectors remain to be tackled casual sexism in the media and in everyday life is still rife and our daughters face a host of new difficulties as they are bombarded by images of unrealistically skinny airbrushed supermodels celebrity role models who depend on their looks and partners for status and by competitive social media the likes of natasha walter and katie roiphe deal with feminism from an adult point of view but our daughters need to be prepared for stresses that are coming into play now as early as pre school this is a manifesto for every mother who has ever had to comfort a daughter who doesn't feel pretty for every young woman who outperforms her male peers professionally and wonders why she is still not taken seriously and for anyone interested in the world we are making for the next generation
