in a world plagued by depression and anxiety depression and anxiety the causes and treatment according to the quran explores these ailments from a unique perspective based on the teachings of imam imam muhammad saïd ramadan al buti this groundbreaking book unveils hidden causes often overlooked within a secular paradigm delving into different types of depression and anxiety linked to specific causes it emphasizes the role of a strengthened relationship with allah in finding healing and empowerment this book offers spiritual enrichment guiding readers to lessen their attachment to this world purify their hearts and souls and understand the purpose of their existence by drawing nearer to allah and embracing the teachings of the qurân readers gain the competence and strength to face life's challenges without succumbing to anxiety or depression with insightful appendices and additional resources depression and anxiety the causes and treatment according to the qurân provides the tools for a deeper understanding guiding individuals towards the emotional well being and inner peace that comes from being close to one's lord and with allah alone is every success this important book addresses one of the failed tactics of those who seek to sow doubt in order to push the upcoming generation away from islam by saying if allah existed justice would prevail throughout the world because allah is just but where is this justice when we see innocent people suffering and criminals living in luxury this book contains a scientific answer to this question and shows the reader how this tactic always fails as long as a person is adorned with objective thought and a free intellect the second volume of imam al buti's pinnacle papers most muslims today are turning their attention towards analyzing islam and trying to present the true state of the muslims but they only look at outward actions and statements these deeds and statements are nothing but the upper floors of islam's building they cannot be strengthened nor consolidated unless they are relying on that humble hidden part of the building known as the foundations these foundations are established in the heart so how can the foundations of islam s building be established therein how can a connection be made between the foundations of this building and its upper floors such that the muslims can guarantee that it will not be blown away by the wind or rocked by a storm and that it will not be inundated by the forces of tyranny and base desires the mission of this book is to answer these questions and reveal the ways to make this connection between one s islamic life inside the heart and one s islamic life as manifested via one s limbs and organs

the problems of the youth are not problems that are connected to them insomuch as they are problems of the community that they live in sticking them to the youth is to accuse the innocent and to exonerate the guilty to charge them with the responsibility of rising above these problems while their communities remain as they are is a very strange kind of futile behaviour how can that be and what is the solution the answer is found in the pages of this book two timely essays by imam al b on language dialogue and the qur n in this powerful and timely volume imam muhammad said ramadan al buti one of the foremost scholars of our time presents two profound essays on the qur n s guidance concerning speech dialogue and the preservation of language the first essay the etiquette of dialogue in allah s book explores how the quran instructs believers to engage in respectful wise and principled dialogue drawing directly from quran verses imam al buti demonstrates that the believer s approach to discussion whether with fellow muslims or with those who reject faith must be rooted in clarity logic compassion and ethical integrity far from encouraging polemics or verbal conquest the quran lays out a framework for inviting others to the truth with sincerity and dignity the second essay preserving the arabic language and its literature is a stirring defence of the arabic language and its central role in the life of the muslim ummah imam al buti exposes the ideological agendas both historical and modern colonial and internal that have sought to weaken or displace arabic arguing that such efforts threaten the ummah s direct connection to the quran and thus by extension their relationship with allah himself both essays are presented with fully vocalised arabic text alongside precise english translations offering timeless guidance for seekers of knowledge arabic students educators those engaged in da wah and all who are committed to preserving the integrity of islam deeply rooted in love for allah his book and the language in which it was revealed this volume is a call to reflection revival and action this text presents the ideas of a number of contemporary modernist and liberal muslim thinkers exposing an important intellectual current in islamic thought these figures work mainly outside established institutional political and religious frameworks whilst relying heavily on traditional sources responding to the challenges brought by colonialism and modernization they propose new conceptions and interpretations of islam consonant with the age although their specific concerns and emphases vary their thought shares certain features a reconsideration of the relation between religion and politics an easy incorporation of modern western ideas a reinterpretation of sacred sources which highlights their more universalist elements and a conception of islam as moving with historical change whilst remaining rooted in qur'anic values disputing the widespread view of modern islam as essentially political the book shows a quite different face of the tradition
