the first world war brought with it enormous ideological political and social problems in russia as in italy the repercussions of the war were soon felt and the two countries saw the birth of oppositional movements within them in russia these movements grasped power thanks to a bolshevik coup while in italy mussolini founded the fasci di combattimento a real militia ready to ride the popular discontent with the mutilated victory specifically the dissatisfaction with territories promised by the treaty of london and not granted to italy relations between these two countries were interrupted for several years and were resumed only when both realized that the economic advantages that could result from resuming relations would be far more beneficial than continuing their ideological confrontation however mutual distrust never stopped and rendered bilateral relations increasingly tenuous until they were definitely severed in the early years of the second world war
