i am excited and in fact feel provoked as the book has manifested that the author had successfully gone through the mysterious cultural immersion upon leading a full life in uzbekistan and accomplished the mastery of both the russian and uzbek languages he was well disposed to manoeuvre the heritage tunnel spinning his head with the multitude of values unbeknown to him his exploits through the rustic country rugged mountains and infinite horizon of forest would match with deeper emotion in circumventing the cultural network passing through the cal de sac of unexplained attributes and reaching the thoughts of real life assurance that have wired him to be one of us the subtle and essential values inculcated drove his adrenalin towards the congregation of behaviour thereby providing an immense source of motivation to be part of the living culture of the country this is thus a classic case in the study of any melting pot from any continent whereby mere coexistence would miss out the rich and deep cultural experience dr yahya mat hassan an academia and a pollster for putin and for sharia examines what it means to support sharia in twenty first century dagestan where calls for an islamic state coexist with nostalgia for the days of stalin s rule and mecca calendars hang alongside portraits of putin confronting existing narratives about sharia terrorism and anti terrorism through ethnographic fieldwork iwona kaliszewska looks at the beliefs and practices of dagestani muslims revealing that the pursuit of sharia can assume a range of forms from sweeping visions of an islamic state imposed through violence to minor acts of everyday resistance against injustice to attempts to restore the security and stability once afforded by the soviet state in for putin and for sharia kaliszewska challenges the official dichotomy of muslims as supporting either the political underground or state authorities and deconstructs the salafi sufi division between the so called reformists and traditional islam
