poems includes a short biography

the book entitled encyclopaedia of untouchables ancient medieval and modern compiled in 2 volumes witnesses to the fact that how the brahminical ideology used to behave with the poor people of the father which is totally unbearable to a normal person even though they used to clean the cities latrines skin of the dead animals which were owned by the brahmans hence the dalit literature is not a simple literature it is associated with a movement to bring about a change in the society by working personally to realize the basic facts of the life but brahmans are only the philosophers of their literature working for their personal benefit not for others it has established its own strong tradition with anti caste or untouchables thinker like buddha ved vyash valmiki qutab ud din aebik balban balban firoz shah tuglaq barani the great writer amir timur sultan sikandar of kashmir zain ul abidin mirza haidar dughlat babar ravidas akbar guru nanak kabir phule dr b r ambedkar many more as its sign posts radhasoami reality explores the emergence of a new religious tradition that is expanding rapidly across north india and throughout the world mark juergensmeyer seeks to explain why the religious logic of radhasoami which is based on the teachings of medieval hindu saints is so compelling to today s society and finally a comprehensive bibliography and an extended glossary of punjabi terms make it the finest enterprise of its kind in sikh studies the worship of a living person as a manifestation of the divine is here examined as it is practiced among the sants of north india this well researched book provides the first coherent understanding of the movement as a whole tracing its sources in both indic and islamic milieus and contrasting its perceptions of guru and lineage with those found in orthodox versions of hindu and buddhist tantra and indian sufism at the same time gold examines the dynamic between holy man and tradition and guru and disciple to provide a vivid portrayal of devotees attitudes toward the independent and at times highly idiosyncratic holy men this volume presents a detailed study of the growth of beas branch of radha soami satsang which started from a wild grass strewn area of a few square yards and which has now been converted into a well planned self governed township under the leadership of its five spiritual masters baba jaimal singh baba sawan singh baba jagat singh baba charan singh and the present master baba gurinder singh it also takes into account through extensive fieldwork the historical background philosophy national and international growth administrative structure social welfare activities and literary works undertaken by the beas branch it adds new dimensions to one's understanding of how a religious philosophy propagated by its masters could attract millions of followers from all over the world the work is largely based on the information collected through the author's personal visits to dera beas and its other satsang centres interviews of some dera devotees besides dera library archival records dera magazines government records and secondary sources this volume also contains detailed maps appendices and a glossary which adds immensely to the scholarly nature of the work illustrations 3 maps description history of the sikhs is a five volume series dealing with all aspects religious philosophical political military social economic and cultural and the contribution of sikhism to world civilization in particular to human rights principles of liberty equality and fraternity and to the creed of democracy and secularism the aim is to present a comprehensive view of the rise growth and development of sikh thought and action almost in every direction the entire series is based on original contemporary sources in english gurmukhi marathi persian and urdu known to exist in india and abroad this first volume gives the story of ten masters who provided leadership to the downtrodden people of the punjab both in religious and political fields for about two centuries their aim was to remove the bitterness that had persisted between the rulers and their subjects for the past five hundred years they wished to create a new society based upon mutual brotherhood and freedom of thought expression and action it was under the circumstances almost an impossible task but there is nothing like a dream to create the future utopia today flesh and blood tomorrow man's onward march requires that the heights around him should be ablaze with noble and glorious deeds of valour and self sacrifice to serve as guiding lights such evolutionary and revolutionary models were furnished by guru arjan guru tegh bahadur guru gobind singh and his four sons ajit singh 18 years jujhar singh 14 years zorawar singh 8 years and fatah singh 5 years as well as by their numerous disciples like bhais mati das sati das and dayal das the main feature of this book are a critical appraisal of guru nanak's janam sakhis justification for celebrating guru nanak's birthday in november instead of in april guru nanak's compositions mardana's death at baghdad how amritsar developed into a sikh centre guru arjan's martyrdom why guru hargobind took to militarism guru har rae's residence at nahan hukam namas of guru tegh bahadur guru gobind singh's formula of five into five his literary
