this book provides an analysis of the west indian novel in the context post structuralism the author sets up a dialogue between west indian intellectual practice as exemplified by thinkers such as george lamming c l r james and e kamau brathwaite and the discussions privileged by foucault and derrida as they examine what might be called the will to identity the work demonstrates that many west indian novels implicitly prefigured deconstructive practice as elucidated by jacques derrida in addition it observes that the powerful hegemony of imperialism as ubiquitous in the caribbean as the tropical sunshine needs to be included in any aesthetic equation which focuses on the west indian novel as such michel foucault s critique of power and epistemic violence is interwoven with derrida s analyses of a metaphysics of exclusion eschewing a chronological approach the work concludes with textual analyses which provide the reader with insight into theory as well as practice
