this general history based on archival and monographic sources some of which were not available to earlier writers is designed to be a balanced and comprehensive synthesis seldom does a historian come upon a richer mix of colorful personalities dramatic action byzantine intrigue and momentous historical issues the impact of americans on china during the war was enormous much of u s activity in china because of inadequate knowledge of china s culture government and military capabilities was harmful to china and Chiang s regime moreover u s efforts to induce Chiang to make reforms designed to improve his regime s war effort and chances for post war survival were ineffective the sulfurous american general Joseph Stilwell assigned to serve as Chiang s chief of staff underestimating the fighting ability of the japanese and disregarding Chiang s advice followed a strategy in the first Burma campaign that contributed to the loss of Chiang s best divisions and the chance of holding north Burma Stilwell s obsessive demand for a new burma campaign involved him in bitter controversies with Chiang the British and U.S. Air Commander Claire Chennault when the British demanded that Stilwell be removed from Burma he with Roosevelt's support demanded that Chiang turn over to him the command of China's armed forces which was equivalent to control of China but Americans could not enforce this demand on Chiang who expelled Stilwell from China Ambassador Patrick Hurley then attempted to arrange a coalition government between Chiang and the Communists a proposal Chiang rejected at Roosevelt's insistence Chiang allowed America to send U.S. personnel the Dixie Mission to the Communist headquarters at Yennan Mao Tse Tung convinced Foreign Service Officer John Service and others that he sought a cooperative relationship with America in order among other reasons to reduce his dependence on Russia before Stilwell's dismissal Americans had decided to arm the Communists but the removal of Stilwell defeated that purpose and U.S. aid continued to go exclusively to Chiang it appeared that the ideological preferences of Americans brought about a postponement of cooperation with the ultimately victorious Chinese Communists despite an eventual common interest in keeping Soviet influence in East Asia in check this comprehensive study is illustrated and includes a chronology glossary bibliography and index book jacket title summary field provided by Blackwell North America Inc all rights reserved
