now with sage publishing cultural anthropology a global perspective delves into both classic and current research in the field reflecting a commitment to anthropology's holistic and integrative approach this text illuminates how the four core subfields of anthropology biological anthropology archaeology linguistics and cultural anthropology together yield a comprehensive understanding of humanity in examining anthropological research this text often refers to research conducted in other fields sparking the critical imagination that brings the learning process to life the tenth edition expands on the book's hallmark three-themed approach: diversity of human societies, similarities that make all humans fundamentally alike, and synthetic/complementary approach by introducing a new fourth theme addressing psychological essentialism, recognizing the necessity for students to develop an enhanced global awareness more than ever before. Author Raymond Scupin uses over 30 years of teaching experience to bring readers closer to the theories, data, and critical thinking skills vital to appreciating the full sweep of the human condition. This title is accompanied by a complete teaching and learning package.

The new tenth edition of Kottak's best-selling text for general anthropology continues to offer a holistic introduction to anthropology that approaches the course from a four-field perspective and a book that is good for students and professors. The new tenth edition is a major revision offering many new and exciting features that build on the strengths of this approach. The text has two new themes: bringing it all together and understanding ourselves. The bringing it all together theme emphasizes anthropology's integrated comparative and four-field nature. Can be found in new bringing it all together essays that show how anthropology's subfields and dimensions combine to interpret and explain a common topic. The understanding ourselves theme helps to explain the relevance of facts and theories to students. Can be found in new understanding ourselves paragraphs that answer the question: so what? A brand new and unique atlas and visual guide will be shrink-wrapped with every copy of the text for free, offering students even more visual material on top of an already outstanding visual arts program. In the text, two new features called Interpreting the World and Atlas and Visual Guide Questions will tie key content in the atlas and visual guide to the text. Two new chapters drawn from an original chapter on cultural and archaeology methods now focus on methods and ethics in all four subfields. This edition will continue to offer revised and updated popular features of previous editions, including chapter opening in the news vignettes, many now from 2002, interesting issues boxes, beyond the classroom boxes, as well as a wealth of learning tools and support.
