how to connect micro deliberations in mini publics to the political decision making processes of the larger society in innovating democracy robert goodin surveys these new deliberative mechanisms asking how they work and what we can properly expect of them much though they have to offer they cannot deliver all that deliberative democrats hope talk goodin concludes is good as discovery procedure but not as a decision procedure his slogan is first talk then vote micro deliberative mechanisms should supplement not supplant representative democracy goodin goes on to show how to adapt our thinking about those familiar institutions to take full advantage of deliberative inputs that involves rethinking who should get a say how we hold people accountable how we sequence deliberative moments and what the roles of parties and legislatures can be in that revisioning macro democratic processes in light of the processes and promise of micro deliberation innovating democracy provides an integrated perspective on democratic theory and practice after the deliberative turn
