throughout the entire christian era adventist groups have been announcing that the return of jesus christ is imminent this book is a reminder that until some awesome prophecies of which jesus warned have been fulfilled his return cannot be imminent when questioned about the signs preceding his return jesus warned of deception of international hatred of christians and of the prophet daniel s forecast of an unprecedented time of trouble that would almost destroy mankind to those in thessalonica long ago who believed the lord s return was imminent the apostle paul wrote you must allow no one to deceive you in any way that day cannot come until the great rebellion has taken place quoting from daniel paul describes an appalling rebel and how the lord s appearing will remove him despite these warnings from jesus and paul many christians today regard these old prophecies as largely metaphorical and as having been fulfilled to their infinite loss they overlook them and perpetuate the age old prediction that the lord s return is imminent in contradiction to that many prophecies related herein prove that the three and a half years of the time of the end have not yet begun this book takes readers on a journey that is part storytelling part academic analysis and part spiritual exploration the authors identify the climate emergency as a breakdown in spiritual consciousness which fails to recognize our deep interconnection with nature to meet this crisis of spirit storying our relationship with nature serves as a guide for transforming ourselves and our lives through story and highlights the importance of social and emotional aspects of environmental education the authors introduce the philosophical and historical foundations of our objectification of nature as a commodity and describe the effect this view has on our lives they detail a path forward through storytelling contemplative practice eastern philosophy and the transformative power of education throughout the book reflective activities provide a space for the reader to personalize their learning leading the reader towards the book's central message once we learn to consciously re-story our relationship with nature we can transform our cultural narrative of fatalism and greed into one of love determination and possibility helping us move towards a sustainable future the sixteen shortened biblical stories are told through the lens of relationships which is a fresh way of telling them this book will get you thinking about the biblical character of god god's stories uncover his love for every human being as you read his stories of how he had a relationship with ancient characters from these stories you can see how much god cares and wants an intimate relationship with you the stories reveal how you can build relationships with others too most chapters focus on traits of a healthy relationship like trust and listening all this is wonderful news for those who are seeking healthy relationships with god family members and friends come and see how god invites you to a healthy loving relationship with him about the book any relationship which is considered important to us can either be the best or the worst part of our lives defining how our lives turn out what then about the relationship with the one who actually created us the one who gave us life the one on whom our faith and spirituality stands a godly relationship which surpasses all the effects and longings of our worldly relationships this book deals with the inner relationship we should have with our heavenly father where we have failed to keep our communication with him and have removed him from being the most important part of our lives it deals with how our lives should be having god as the head and center of our beings it brings out what happens when we map out our lives without god in it and reveals how we can overcome the obstacles which have removed us from his glorious light it shows us what the father wants us to be and assures us that we will always be embraced in his arms about the author a voracious reader which ultimately led her to pen down her thoughts sophia m george is based in delhi and is a nurse by profession sophia's zeal for god's work and partaking in the expansion of his kingdom's glory has her working as a leader among youth her aim is to show them the right path in which they should walk to be worthy of god's calling a committed christian sophia hails from a family who are working towards god's kingdom and desire to do so much more for his glory practical applications of transforming the attachment relationship to god discusses four distinct attachment relationships to the god of personal spiritual experience and considers how each of these relationships has implications for working with clients in psychotherapy geoff goodman uses attachment informed psychotherapy aip to explore the connection between a relationship to god and a relationship to caregivers during childhood by analyzing the attachment relationships evident in the lives of four public figures human rights activist coretta scott king jewish holocaust victim anne frank alcoholics anonymous co founder bill w and founder of psychoanalysis sigmund freud this book demonstrates how their attachment relationships with their caregivers during childhood helped to determine the quality of their attachment relationship or nonrelationship to god in later life goodman demonstrates how to use aip to work with these attachment relationships formulating a psychotherapeutic treatment plan for each one with the goal of restoring wholeness and unity this book will be a valuable resource for psychoanalysts psychotherapists and marriage and family therapists in practice and in training
