a provocative argument for a new way of seeing israel zionism and the two state solution haifa republic a democratic future for israel is an urgent wake up call the philosopher omri boehm argues that it is long past time to recognize that there will not be a two state solution to the conflict between israel and the palestinian people after fifty years israel s occupation of the west bank constitutes annexation in all but name even as the legitimate claims of the arab population soon to be a national majority remain unaddressed meanwhile daily life goes on under conditions rightly likened to apartheid for liberals in israel and america to continue to place their hopes in a two state solution is a form of willful and culpable blindness especially now that israeli leaders across the political spectrum have begun to speak of ethnic cleansing a catastrophe is in the making but haifa republic also offers grounds for hope catastrophe can be averted boehm contends by reconfiguring israel as a single binational state in which palestinians and jews both possess human rights and equal citizenship the original zionists theodor herzl ze ev jabotinsky and early in his career david ben gurion all advocated such a federation and as prime minister menachem begin successfully submitted a kindred plan to the knesset a binational federation offers a last chance for the two peoples who call palestine home to live in peace and mutual respect and to have a truly democratic future in common
