a study of pope francis s example and teaching on relating the liturgy to living the mission of the liturgy in the world through holiness and mission this book highlights the expansion of the influential pentecostal hillsong church global megachurch network from australia across global cities ethnographic research in amsterdam and new york city shows that global cities harbor nodes in transnational religious networks in which media play a crucial role by taking a lived religion approach media is regarded as integral part of everyday practices of interaction expression and consumption of religion key question raised is how processes of mediatization shape alter and challenge this thriving cosmopolitan expression of pentecostalism current debates in the study of religion are addressed religious belonging and community in global cities the interrelation between media technology religious practices and beliefs religion media and social engagement in global cities media and emerging modes of religious leadership and authority in this empirical study pressing societal issues like institutional responses to sexual abuse of children views on gender roles misogyny and mediated constructions of femininity are discussed the authority oriented pastoral catechetical planning method which characterizes the african mission transmission has been problematic as it subtly neglects in its pedagogy the culture and daily life of the subject hence the people operate a christian cultural double standard this book proffers an alternative as the author makes the concept of the relationship hermeneutics model to a creative writing that aims towards an empirical application in the theology of inculturation which is a subject oriented and dialogical method that draws its strength from the incarnation prototype various christian traditions mark their calendars to reflect the biblical and ecclesial narrative and enhance public worship such efforts safeguard against secularization s encroachment in the church s life setting the spiritual clock serves as a guide and traveling companion for the liturgical year which circles the glorious son as he breaks through the secular eclipse catholics are not christians they worship mary they do whatever the pope says they cannot divorce they eat fish on fridays these flawed but common statements reflect a combined ignorance of and fascination with catholicism and the catholic church catholicism today an introduction to the contemporary catholic church aims to familiarize its readers with contemporary catholicism the book is designed to address common misconceptions and frequently asked questions regarding the church its teachings and the lived experience of catholics in modern societies worldwide opening with a concise historical overview of christianity in general and catholicism in particular the text explores the core beliefs and rituals that define catholicism in practice the organization of the church and the catholic calendar as well as the broad question of what it means to be catholic in a variety of cultural contexts the book ends with a discussion of the challenges facing the church both now and in the coming decades also included are two short appendices on eastern catholicism and catholicism in the united states this volume explores concepts of fiction in late antique hagiographical narrative in different cultural and literary traditions it includes greek latin syriac armenian persian and arabic material whereas scholarship in these texts has traditionally focussed on historical questions this book approaches imaginative narrative as an inherent element of the genre of hagiography that deserves to be studied in its own right the chapters explore narrative complexities related to fiction such as invention authentication intertextuality imagination and fictionality together they represent an innovative exploration of how these concepts relate to hagiographical discourses of truth and the religious notion of belief while paying due attention to the various factors and contexts that impact readers responses
