this collection of stories brings together some of the most interesting and innovative american fiction writers including felipe alfau john barth donald barthelme robert coover gilbert sorrentino and gertrude stein since the 1930s divorce in america is the subject of gilbert sorrentino s relentlessly disturbing first novel tracing the new york to san francisco journey of a family as the husband and wife try to maintain the illusion that the marriage can be rescued the sky changes records the imaginable damage they inflict upon each other in order to force themselves towards divorce along the way their two children become victims of the parents failures and are dragged throughout the torment of this disintegrating marriage no other novel in american literature is so narrowly dedicated to recording close up the devastating pain of a marriage falling apart and the doomed to fail efforts to make it work and no other novel so perfectly captures the moral bankruptcy of the united states as a background to divorce
