an event defined as the decisive turn the surprising point in the plot of a narrative constitutes its tellability the motivation for reading it this book describes a framework for a narratological definition of eventfulness and its dependence on the historical socio cultural and literary context a series of fifteen analyses of british novels and tales from late medieval and early modern times to the late 20th century demonstrates how this concept can be put into practice for a new specifically contextual interpretation of the central relevance of these texts the examples include chaucer s miller s tale behn s oroonoko defoe s moll flanders richardson s pamela fielding s tom jones dickens s great expectations hardy s on the western circuit james s the beast in the jungle joyce s grace conrad s shadow line woolf s unwritten novel lawrence s fanny and annie mansfield s at the bay fowles s enigma and swift s last orders this selection is focused on the transitional period from 19th century realism to 20th century modernism because during these decades traditional concepts of what counts as an event were variously problematized therefore these texts provide a particularly interesting field for testing the analytical capacity of the term of

eventfulness
