paul g buchanan and kate nicholls explore the political and economic fortunes of organised labour in five small open democracies between 1975 and 2000 of particular interest is the role of labour market institutions organisational histories and trade union ideologies in shaping outcomes under conditions of economic liberalisation the book includes a theoretical and methodological introduction followed by individual discussions of australia and chile and new zealand and uruguay grouped a cross regional pairs and ireland as an extra regional and atypical case this book examines the basic tenets of nation nationalism and citizenship it explores the relevance of the nation state to human freedom and flourishing as well as the concept of citizenship that it implies in contrast to that of the ancient polis and the global community the volume focusses on the shifting notions of various political concepts over time to present a systematic understanding of core concepts such as polis nation and state from antiquity to the present it includes contributions that analyze ancient and modern thought and sections that address postmodern and contemporary thinkers including aristotle cicero hobbes locke rousseau tocqueville nietzsche arendt weil grant and manent a comprehensive handbook to introductory politics this book will be invaluable to students and teachers of political science especially political theory political philosophy democracy political participation and international relations theory latin america and the caribbean lac has made slow but consistent progress addressing the imbalances induced by the pandemic in an international environment that is just now showing signs of stabilizing despite favorable macroeconomic management high interest rates and fiscal imbalances remain challenging while growth rates remain lackluster due to long standing structural issues looking forward an aging workforce and rising violence will increasingly complicate policy this report focuses particularly on weak competitive forces as a source of low productivity low growth and low welfare in lac it emphasizes the need for effective competition institutions pro competition regulatory frameworks complementary policies to improve the capabilities of workers and firms and enhanced innovation systems to prepare local industries to reach the technological frontier and face global competition furthermore the report underscores the need for reforms to prevent large businesses from exerting undue political influence over policy decisions the conflict in bosnia disputes within the new world trade organizatiion and debates about nato enlargement all illustrate a single point no relationship is more important in determining the state of international relations than the alliance between europe and america contrary to accepted wisdom john peterson argues that the end of the cold war actually enhances the prospects for partnership between the united states and the european union completely updated this book offers a clear and penetrating analysis of the problems and opportunities facing the transatlantic alliance since the end of the cold war there have been a number of cases where the democratization process has been turbulent or even violent addressing electoral violence its evolution and impact in the western balkans this book explores the conflict logic of election and tries to understand its basic patterns two decades of electoral competition in the region are analysed to identify an interesting evolution of electoral violence in terms of forms actors motivations and dynamics by identifying the potential drivers of electoral violence and explaining the escalation and stimulus of violence related events the author combines a theoretical approach with original data to emphasise the variability of the phenomenon and its evolution in the region the book will appeal to students and scholars of post communist europe and democratisation processes and the western balkans in particular it should also be of interest to political advisors and those involved in developing or implementing democratisation programmes
