for the evangelists and for paul the gospel is both narrative and proclamation the four gospels have been read and studied for nearly 2 000 years as early as the second century irenaeus church father and martyr declared that four accounts of the life of christ were needed no more and no less yet many christians in spite of the numerous and excellent commentaries available today cannot answer the question why four gospels this in depth volume which took 20 years to research and 10 years to write clearly reveals the necessity of a four fold portrait of christ selected excerpts from some of the most celebrated writers of the past such as a edersheim chas erdman f w farrar edw gibbon f l godet d s gregory f w krummacher h h milman g campbell morgan arthur pink sir wm ramsay chas rollin r c trench b f westcott and scores of others are incorporated throughout the book in order to explain and substantiate the historical background and characteristic differences of the four gospels this work is an excellent reference for teachers students and historians but is designed for christians in all walks of life a homeschooling mother stated that the work is quite readable even by a pressured mom and very worthwhile i especially like the organization of the book which helped me keep my bearings the history is fascinating and helpful indispensable for all who long to know jesus better the four gospels provides a complete reference to the gospels features an engaging layout providing information where you need it includes charts maps and photographs is a source for personal meditation is great for group bible study too is solidly catholic in approach comes from the producers of the long standing little rock scripture study program a synopsis is a tool which displays different passages of a text side by side for comparison this is most commonly done with the four gospels of the new testament because of their similar material but it could reasonably be done with any text that has similar passages such as the old testament historical narratives the synopsis you presently hold contains the four gospels of the new testament it is different from comparing parallel versions such as one english translation to another because all of the passages displayed in this synopsis are from the same version the net bible it is different from a harmony because the passages are not reorganized into one story each gospel in a synopsis is separate from the others and can be read by itself or in comparison with the others this parallel arrangement enables fruitful comparison of the gospels to each other so each may be understood well on its own in light of the others the jesus story is a seamless narrative woven from the different perspectives of the four gospel writers matthew mark luke and john the gospels were placed one after another in the part of the bible called the new testament the first three are referred to as the synoptic gospels because they describe events from a similar point of view as contrasted with that of john each gospel was written to a particular audience to portray a unique aspect of jesus life and teaching when these four reports are combined into a complete flowing narrative we have the chronological order of every known fact of jesus life by omitting duplication the four books fit together perfectly the result is not a literary curiosity but a more convincing and readable story than any of the four gospels alone this masterpiece which took 23 years to complete is true to the original greek and yet easy to read as for organization the story is divided into seven chapters jesus s preparation each of the four years of his ministry his final week and his death resurrection and ascension between these sections the story flows without the distraction of chapter and verse references subject headings footnotes cross references and commentary you ll be able to read the story of jesus as you would a novel c from publisher s description
